4-H record keeping is a life skill. Your 4-H record is an organized presentation of what you have learned and accomplished in 4-H. It is a useful tool for determining your own progress and personal growth.

Assembling Your 4-H Record Book

Assemble your 4-H record book in the following order:

Cover: Use a standard 4-H record book cover

- 1. 4-H Member Permanent Record (this page is optional, but is required if you are applying for achievement awards and/or project pins). Keep in the front of your book. (2 pages)
- 2. Current 4-H Member's Annual Report: A new 4-H Member's Annual Report is completed each year. (5 pages)
- 3. Accumulative Record For Youth-In-Action Activities: This is an ongoing accumulative record of your involvement in Fashion Revue, Judging, Public Presentation, Showmanship, Special Foods and Other Awards you have received. Every year you should update the record and bring it forward in your record book. (Possible 6 pages)
- 4. Your 4-H Story: The story should include:
 - What your 4-H experiences have meant to you, what you are good at and/or what did you learn about yourself through 4-H;
 - What your local club has done and your part in it;
 - Your projects or programs and why you selected them;
 - What problems or challenges you had;
 - Results from your project(s) or programs(s) and what you learned;
 - What did you learn in 4-H that relates to other parts of your life;
 - Plans for next year.
- 5. Photos: Include photos of your 4-H year activities and use captions and dates.
- 6. Clippings: Try to include clippings from the meetings you attended, Achievement Days, State Fair, and anything else your name appears in. Underline or highlight your name in the clippings. Other material should be placed in a scrapbook.
